

It is highly important that you consider the will of the people, not solely the will of the corporation.